APPROVAL OF AGENDA

Council Member Upton MOVED approve the agenda, seconded by Council Member Litteral. Motion PASSED by majority voice vote.

DISCUSSION ITEMS

Police Staffing Analysis

Chief Evers reviewed the history of the Beavercreek Police Department. He discussed the staffing analysis performed in 2014 and the requirements for Ohio Department of Administrative Services Public Safety Answering Point Operation Rules. He explained they have until May 2018 to come into compliance which would require the hiring of additional staff. The additional staff would require three to five officers, three communication operators and one additional civilian support personnel. Chief Evers will continue to study the mandates and the different avenues for a resolution.

Case Law Update

Mr. McHugh reviewed a school board case regarding emails.

Oversized Vehicle Parking on Streets

There was discussion regarding the parking of large vehicles on public streets and a draft ordinance to address the situation. There was also discussion of a second draft ordinance addressing the penalty section which is in need of updating.
